

Chinmaya Mission New York
Welcomes you to attend CHYK (Chinmaya Yuva Kendra)
Youth Study Group in Manhattan, NYC

The Yuva Kendra youth are vivacious and vibrant group of motivated and successful individuals in their western lives but are also interested in learning more, preserving and applying esteemed values from their eastern culture both philosophically, culturally and spiritually.

Here young adults meet to learn and facilitate discussions on the art of living by applying values and principles from Vedanta. Their goal is to encourage each to realize one's true potential and strive towards a higher purpose by learning and sharing one's thoughts, ideas and inspirations with reference to Vedantic texts used in the study group discussions, leading to experiencing and understanding the Divine Self.

For details regarding location and days, please contact:

Preeta Ragavan preetar18@gmail.com (609) 240-4580

Vivek Surve viva1410@gmail.com (718) 956-4468

Please visit us at www.chinmayanewyork.org for more information

“Youth is a stage in human development when the personality is bursting with energy, enthusiasm and dynamism. This is also a phase in life when receptivity and retentivity are at the optimum. What they require is a clear vision of a goal in life and exercises for the cultivation of the right values of life to enable them to mould their personality and harness their inner resources along constructive channels. This systematic preparation alone can equip the youth to face the challenges of life with a smile. This essential training of youth for leadership in life is being successfully accomplished through the Chinmaya Yuva Kendra (CHYKs).”

~ Swami Chinmayananda